Exploring the promise of God for all

Welcome to Central Lutheran Church.

You are welcome, no exceptions.

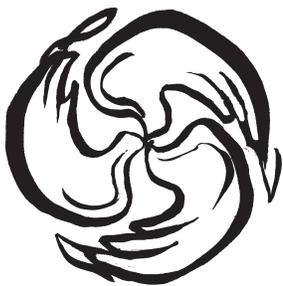

Here are a few notes you might find helpful for worship:

Bold print indicates responses spoken by all.

Masks are welcomed, and everyone should mask while singing.

Congregational hymns are found printed in this bulletin or in the red hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

Although Alice Jordan (1916-2012) was born in Davenport (IA) her family moved to Des Moines shortly after her birth. She spent the rest of her life there. She studied composition at Drake University, Columbia University and Union Theological Seminary. Her catalogue includes over 250 choral and organ works.

The Holy Spirit gathers us in unity on this first day of the week.

OPENING SENTENCES

Isaiah 12:2-6

Surely God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid, for the Lord God is my strength and my might, and has become my salvation.

With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

And you will say in that day: Give thanks to the Lord, call on God's name;

make known the deeds of the Lord among the nations; proclaim that this name is exalted.

Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth.

Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

OPENING HYMN

"How Firm a Foundation"

Hymn 796
Stanzas 1 - 3

PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

God of faithful surprises,
throughout the ages

you have made known your love and power in unexpected ways and places.

May we daily perceive the joy and wonder of your abiding presence and offer our lives in gratitude for our redemption.

Amen.

Word

READING

Isaiah 65:17-25

¹⁷For I am about to create new heavens
and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind.

¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating;
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy,
and its people as a delight.

¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
and delight in my people;
no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it,
or the cry of distress.

²⁰No more shall there be in it
an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime;
for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth,
and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

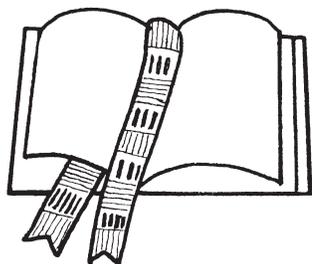

²¹They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²²They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat;
for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be,
and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

²³They shall not labor in vain,
or bear children for calamity;
for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD —
and their descendants as well.

²⁴Before they call I will answer,
while they are yet speaking I will hear.

²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

the lion shall eat straw like the ox;
but the serpent — its food shall be dust!
They shall not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain, says the LORD.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

Luke 21:5-19

The Holy Gospel according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.

⁵When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, ⁶“As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.”

⁷They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?” ⁸And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them.

⁹“When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.”

¹⁰Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; ¹¹there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

¹²“But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. ¹³This will give you an opportunity to testify. ¹⁴So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; ¹⁵for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. ¹⁶You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷You will be hated by all because of my name. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹By your endurance you will gain your souls.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

As scattered grains of wheat are gathered together into one bread, so let us gather our prayers for the church, those in need, and all of God’s good creation.

Each petition concludes:

God of grace:

Hear our prayer.

Gathered together in the sweet communion of the Holy Spirit, gracious God, we offer these and all our prayers to you; through Jesus Christ, our Savior

Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

And also with you.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy God, mighty Lord, gracious Parent...

... to share with us the great and promised feast.

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

God feeds us with the presence of Jesus Christ.

Send now, we pray, your Holy Spirit...
... and receive our inheritance with all your saints in light.
Amen. Come, Holy Spirit.

Join our prayers with those of your servants...
... all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

COMMUNION

(Please stand)

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray.
We give you thanks, most gracious God,
that you have fed us with the bread of heaven
and given us a foretaste of Paradise.
Enliven us to be your body in the world and to serve those who are in need;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

BLESSING

The God of peace,
who creates all things and calls them good,
who makes us alive in Jesus,
and who breathes on us the spirit of hope,
+ bless you now and forever.
Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

“Oh, Happy Day When We Shall Stand”

Hymn 441
Stanzas 1 and 2

All are invited to receive these gifts of God.

Children are welcome to come forward and receive communion or a blessing.

God blesses us and sends us for shared mission in our shared world.

Jehan Alain (1911-1940) came from a noted family of French organists. His father was organist and composer Albert Alain, his brother Olivier Alain a pianist/composer and sister Marie-Claire one of the most famous organists of the 20th century. Although he was only 29 when he was killed in battle at the onset of World War II, he had already created a body of inventive and distinctive music. His "Litanies" from 1937 is undoubtedly his best-known piece. About this piece Alain wrote, "one must create an impression of passionate incantation. Prayer is not a lament but a devastating tornado, flattening everything in its way. It is an obsession as well. One must fill people's ears with it and God's ears too! If you get to the end without feeling exhausted you have neither understood it nor played it as I would want."

DISMISSAL

Go in peace. Be a blessing in the world.
Thanks be to God.
