CENTRAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Exploring the promise of God for all

You are welcome. No exceptions.

Central Lutheran Church experiences God's expansive love and strives to share it abundantly. We affirm all people without regard to age, race, biological sex, housing status, ethnicity, sexual orientation, immigration, refugee or migration status, gender identity or expression, socioeconomic status, and physical or mental health or ability. All are a part of God's family, created in God's image.

We strive to practice radical hospitality with all people and work toward racial equity. Everyone is invited to immerse themselves in the life of this community of faith as we explore the promise of God for all.

Worship

Bold print indicates responses spoken by all.

Congregational hymns are found printed in this bulletin or in the red hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship (ELW).

You are encouraged to listen to your body and stand or remain seated at any point in the service.

Masks are welcome, but not required.

Children are welcome and celebrated in worship. Each Sunday there are Children's Bags at each of the ushers' tables at the entrances to the sanctuary. Inside each bag is a worship activity and snack. Many families sit near the children's tables next to the baptismal font, but you are welcome to sit anywhere in the sanctuary that is comfortable to you.

All are welcome to receive communion at Central. At the ushers' invitation, you will proceed toward the altar where there are regular and gluten-free wafers served with wine or grape juice. Your server will offer bread and wine for all, including children. If you prefer to receive a blessing rather than communion, please let your server know.

Offering can be made online using the QR code in the bulletin or left in the offering plates just outside the sanctuary doors.

PRELUDE

"Pie Jesu" Lili Boulanger

Sung in Latin:	Translation:
Pie Jesu, Domine, Dona eis requiem.	Blessed Jesus, Lord, grant them rest.
Pie Jesu, Domine, Dona eis requiem sempiternam.	Blessed Jesus, Lord, grant them eternal rest.

(At the sound of the bell, please stand and face the font.)

Gathering

OPENING SENTENCES

I listen for it tolling
From steeples in the sky.

The bells stir the air between here and heartache.
For a moment,
the mystery satisfies, and we are all together.

I hang onto promises
with my fingers just barely not because I am certain,
but because if I let go, I will fall and break apart.

Perhaps
someone will speak of my Beloved today
and then I will not be so alone.
Hearing the name aloud makes it real,
shares the weight
like a new song
I think I've always known.

There are candles to light the quiet resistance of remembering.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

We turn our hearts to God in prayer:

God of grace, we thank you that your Holy Spirit renews the church in every age. Your Spirit fills your faithful people. Keep them steadfast in your word, protect and comfort them in times of trial, defend them against all enemies of the gospel, and bestow on the church your saving peace, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

CHILDREN'S TIME

FIRST READING Revelation 7:9-17

9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. 10 They cried out in a loud voice, saying,
"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!"
11 And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12 singing,
"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" 14 I said to him, "Sir, you are the one who knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 For this reason they are before the throne of God and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
16 They will hunger no more and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat,
17 for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 34:1-10, 22

Choir: 1 I will bless the Lord | at all times;
the praise of God shall ever be | in my mouth.
2 I will glory | in the Lord;
let the lowly hear | and rejoice.

All: 3 Proclaim with me the greatness | of the Lord;
let us exalt God's | name together.
4 I sought the Lord, who | answered me
and delivered me from | all my terrors.

Choir: 5 Look upon the Lord | and be radiant,
and let not your faces | be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction, and | the Lord heard me
and saved me from | all my troubles.

All: 7 The angel of the Lord encamps around those who | fear the Lord
and de- | livers them.
8 Taste and see that the | Lord is good;
happy are they who take ref- | uge in God!

Choir: 9 Fear the Lord, you saints | of the Lord,
for those who fear the | Lord lack nothing.
10 The lions are in want and | suffer hunger,
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing | that is good.
22 O Lord, you redeem the life | of your servants,
and those who put their trust in you will | not be punished.

GOSPEL Matthew 5:1-12

The Holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 And he began to speak and taught them, saying:
3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
5 "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
10 "Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Give us today our daily bread.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

Postlude

Maurice Duruflé (1902-1986) was a French organist and composer, and the Titular Organist of the Church of Saint-Etienne-du-Mont in Paris. His Suite consists of 3 movements, which are dedicated to his composition teacher Paul Dukas. The toccata is the last movement of this suite. Duruflé was intensely self-critical, and after publication, he grew to dislike the work. In a 1980 interview, he compared the first theme to a dinner with bad beefsteak. His wife Marie-Madeleine, herself an acclaimed organist, disagreed, saying that the saying: "even if you do not like the theme, I like the sauce."
